Justification:

1 & 2) Update with latest terms.

3 & 4) Correction of errors.

5)It is difficult to include all possible abbreviations & symbols used in the wide range of Component Detail Specifications within 21300 or the ancillary Basic specification. This additional sub-para allows each detail spec to include other abbreviations and symbols without the need to list them in 21300 or the ancillary basic specification.

6) Addition of new term required by updated Generic specification 9000 approved for issue at Issue 2.
